SRPN PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We all remember the Champlain Tower collapse which occurred in Surfside Florida in 2021. After this, states began to investigate condominium structural integrity, maintenance, and reserves throughout the United States.

New Jersey is one of the first states to implement a law addressing this issue. It is Senate Bill 2760, which Gov. Murphy signed into law on January 8, 2024. Some of the Bill is specific to condominium structural integrity, maintenance, and reserves. This part of the Bill doesn't affect SRPN or other communities like ours. The part of the Bill that does affect us has to do with Reserve Funding. All communities must maintain an adequately funded Reserve.

Everything has a lifespan, whether it's a roof, parking lot, HVAC systems etc. We must now by law keep our reserves at a level sufficient to replace these items when the time comes -regardless of whether this is 5, 10, 15, or 20 years down the road. We've always had a Reserve, but the issue now is whether it's sufficient.

This is where the Reserve Study comes in. Reserve Studies have now become the law. As you know, the Board wanted to do a Reserve Study before considering increasing the dues. We've gotten three proposals and are now in the process of choosing one. We may have already made that decision by the time you read this.

The Study will tell us line by line, item by item the cost of replacement and how much we need in our Reserve to achieve this goal. We then compare that to what we have, and that will tell us if there is a deficiency. If there is a deficiency, there are three ways to address it. If the deficiency is less than 10%, we have 2 years to make it up. If the deficiency is more than 10% we have ten years to make it up. Or there can be a Special Assessment to make up the difference.

There is no avoiding this, it is the law. Currently, we don't know the numbers. This plan must be implemented by January 8, 2025. This gives us about 10 months. Not only does the Board have to plan for our community now, but we must act in the best interests of future Boards, and the community at large.

Just A Note

The other day I was flabbergasted when I heard a recent retiree say, "Boy do I miss work! Ugh, I'm sorry I ever retired." I wondered what that person was like as a child. I pictured one of those whiny kids who sat around complaining all the time; "I'm bored. There's nothing to do." Now, my siblings and I would NEVER say something like that to my mother because we knew what she'd say; "You're bored? You need something to do? Go clean your room!"

Me? I could not wait to retire, and my family and close friends will attest to that fact - I was counting off the days to retirement since my 57th birthday. I actually had a 'Countdown' app on my cell phone, and weekly - for five years, I would announce how much time I had left until my retirement, which annoyed the heck out of my friends, and I didn't care. I could not wait to end 46 years of 'clocking in'.

Retirement is a state of mind. It's very much like having a second childhood, only better. When I was a kid, if it was snowing on a school day, I dreaded the thought of having to bundle up with layers of winter garb to trudge six blocks through the snow. Now, I don't go outside in snowy weather unless I want or have to. Also, being retired, I can watch R rated movies, sit around in my pajamas all day, spoil my dinner by eating potato chips, and even stay out after the street lights come on. (although I'm not crazy about driving at night any more - but I could if I wanted to!) Yup, I love being retired.

One of the best things about my retirement was moving to SRPN. Settling into an adult community gave me the opportunity to make new friends, just like I did on the first days of school. But how? After all, I couldn't very well go up to someone and say "Wanna be my friend?" That worked fine at the playground... but here? Yet, my unfound friends were here in this community and thank goodness I found them.

As a kid I would have loved my parents to tell me that I was allowed to go bowling every week with my friends or go to the pool every sunny summer day to hang out with my group and have ice cream and hot dogs there too! Nowadays, I can do that ... and I don't need my parents' permission. Yup, I love being retired.

Years ago, Jack and I went to the Pocono Mountains for a long weekend. I don't remember if it was Cove Haven or Paradise Stream - it was one of them. You know ... the place with the Champagne Glass bathtub and the mirrored ceiling above the round king-size bed. It had entertainment, and plenty of outdoor activities; corn hole, shuffleboard, bocce ball, darts, billiards, ping-pong and even pickleball! Come to think of it, we have all those activities here too - without the Champagne Glass bathtub and mirrored ceiling above the round king-size bed. (although, whatever you have in your own home is your business, not mine.)

A neighbor recently told me that he was selling his out-of-state summer home. When I asked what prompted his decision he replied, "I don't need to go away to feel like I'm on vacation." And I thought, "Yup, he loves being retired ... and I bet he had a five-year-retirement Countdown app on his cell phone, too!" 😊

SRPN MEN'S CLUB REPORT

Welcome to a new month here in Silver Ridge North! Just two years ago, we were shoveling out our driveways and sidewalks from a wicked Nor'easter that dumped 15 inches of snow on us. This year, as of this writing, we haven't had more than a few inches of snow and we're all hoping it stays that way!

The Men's Club will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday, March 19th at 6:00 pm in the Clubhouse and we welcome all new members wishing to join the Men's Club. Please be aware that we are continuing to collect the Men's Club Annual Dues from all our members and if you plan on playing in the Men's Club Bocce League, you must be a member in good standing.

Our next Men's Club Event will be the ever popular all-you-can-eat Pancake Breakfast, which will be held on Sunday, March 3rd in the Clubhouse Social Hall. This event always draws a good crowd, and there's always plenty of seating available for everyone. So don't hesitate in coming over and enjoying a great breakfast and socializing with neighbors. You won't be sorry – and you won't go home hungry!

After several months of planning, we're happy to announce that on Sunday, April 14th the Men's Club will be hosting $1,100 Bingo Sunday in the SRPN Social Hall. Doors will open at 1:30 PM and the first Bingo Game will begin at 2:30 PM. The kitchen will be open at 1:30 PM to purchase snacks, hot dogs, desserts, and beverages too. The first nine Bingo games will have a cash payout of $100 for each game and the final Bingo game will have a cash payout of $200! Please be advised there is no pre-admission for this event. Good food, great people and always lots of fun. See our flyer in this issue for more details.

Just a reminder to all residents that we have a very active weekday schedule, full of activities. Check out the Recurring Activities at the top of the Centerfold Calendar for more days and times. Also, there are Nightly Card Games in the Library/Game Room, and the Billiard Room is open too.

Get off the couch, come out and join in the fun – we're looking forward to seeing you!

				2				9
5	9			6
					7		2

Sudoku requires no calculation or arithmetic skills. It is essentially a game of placing numbers in squares, using very simple rules of logic and deduction.

The objective of the game is to fill all the blank squares in a game with the correct numbers. There are three very simple constraints to follow. In a 9 by 9 square Sudoku game:

- Every row of 9 numbers must include all digits 1 through 9 in any order
- Every column of 9 numbers must include all digits 1 through 9 in any order
- Every 3 by 3 subsection of the 9 by 9 square must include all digits 1 through 9

Every Sudoku game begins with a number of squares already filled in, and the difficulty of each game is largely a function of how many squares are filled in. The more squares that are known, the easier it is to figure out which numbers go in the open squares. As you fill in squares correctly, options for the remaining squares are narrowed and it becomes easier to fill them in.

Mess Addressed

There once was a maid whose junk drawer
Was so stuffed it was hard to explore.
The drawer was quite full –
She'd tug and she'd pull,
'Til all of it fell to the floor.

The maiden then had a right snit,
And shouted out loud, "Gol darn it!"
She found a large bucket
Then muttered, "Oh, shucket,
I'll toss all this dross in the pit."

While shoveling up everything
She found a little gold ring,
And then had a thought
That maybe she ought
To see what else sorting might bring.

Well, true to anyone's guess
There was nothing else in that mess.
She'd stack and she'd heave
And then rolled down her sleeve
Saying, "That was a futile process."

The bright side of tackling this chore –
She now had an empty junk drawer.
It took just a minute
To find what to put in it,
Now it's fuller than even before.

Do You Remember the Big One?

According to Punxsutawney Phil, we should have an early spring this year. That wasn't the case in 2003 when I was enjoying the beginning of a three-day weekend. A Weather Alert scrolled across the bottom of our television screen: "The governor of New Jersey has issued a State of Emergency for the entire state beginning Sunday, February 16th through Monday February 17th. A major snow storm with blizzard effects and accumulation up to two feet is expected ..."

The blizzard was called the 'President's Day Snow Fall of 2003'. In Bergen County, we all spent the entire "holiday-off-from-work" day shoveling out our cars, driveways, and sidewalks. About 20 inches of heavy-wet-snow fell across the state, and as you can see from the pictures, the SRPN Clubhouse and Parking Lot was no exception!

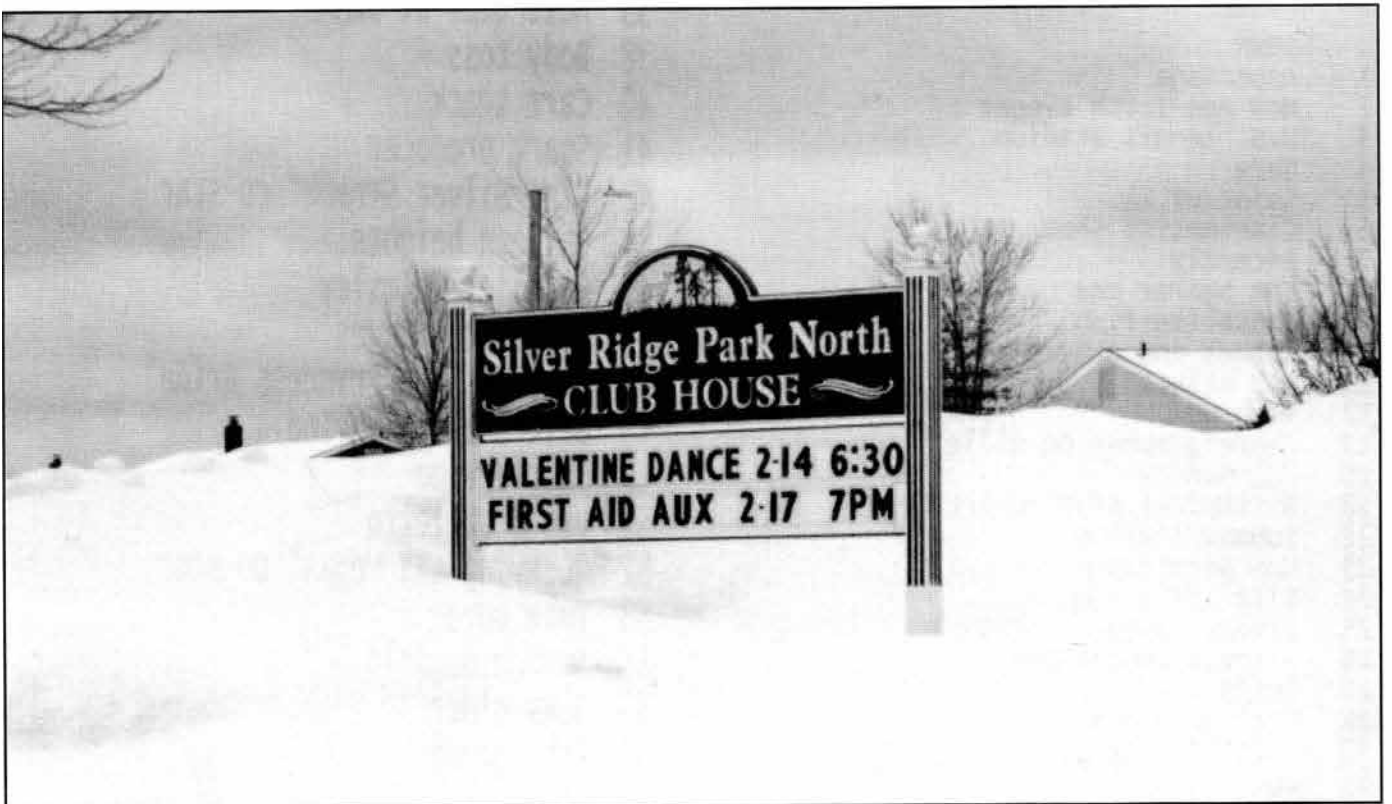

Here's hoping that the Blizzard of 2003 is the only "major snow storm memory" we'll be recalling for the rest of this Winter. Enjoy the photos!

Happy Happy

I try to think of happy thoughts
 But my mind is blank
 The only words my brain can form are
 Dismal, dark, and dank

Let me try this one more time
 Before I call it quits
 Instead of smiles and sun and shine,
 I'm picturing the pits

But wait, I know there is a way
 To turn my brain around
 I'll just stand up on my head
 Make a smile from a frown
