Just A Note

Our Miss Brooke

Growing up, I had such wonderful loving aunts who were very special in my life, and they set the ‘fun-aunt’ bar quite high. I had always wanted to follow in their footsteps and, in the 1980’s (June 24, 1980 to be exact), opportunity rang. Literally. The telephone call that I was waiting for finally came through to my desk at work ... “Hello. What? Really? She’s here?!” With such excitement that couldn’t be contained, I held the telephone receiver over my head and yelled, “Woo-hoo! I’m an AUNT!”

My brother, Eddie, and his wife, Jan, lived in the downstairs apartment of a two-family house in Rutherford; my parents lived upstairs. Being only a few blocks from where I worked, I would often spend my lunch hour visiting my mom. Occasionally I’d stop in to see Jan, who was home expecting their first child ... a baby girl. It was decided early on that the baby’s name was going to be either Erica or Brooke, after Erica Kane and Brooke English - television soap opera characters on All My Children. And, three weeks past her ETA (estimated time of arrival), she made her entrance into the world ... this beautiful little bundle of love called Brooke.

The months (and years) following Brooke’s arrival, I was still going to my mom’s house during my lunch hour but seldom made it past the downstairs door without poking my head in and asking, “Is she awake?” To my joy and delight, many of my lunch hours were filled with time spent with my adorable blonde-haired, blue-eyed niece. She was a beam of sunshine that lit up my heart.

Now, I know everyone has a cute story about a child in their life so here’s mine:

When Brooke was three, her parents took her to Disney World - in the Winter. On the day they were flying home, Newark Airport closed due to a blizzard that had dumped a few feet of snow in Jersey. Their flight was diverted to Buffalo, New York. (No, that’s not the cute part.) A few days after they were home, I popped in to visit Brooke and she asked me to play ‘Disney’ with her. Little did I know she was going to act out the ENTIRE trip - I only had an hour for lunch.

First, she pretended to be the flight attendant on a plane going to Florida, instructing me that I needed to “buckle up.” Next, we were on the ‘Small World’ ride. Brooke lined up her stuffed animals and pretended they were singing that annoying song – you know, the one you can never get out of your head once you hear it! Finally, back on the return flight to Jersey with my favorite flight attendant, she suddenly put her hands up to her face and announced: “Oh, No!! Sorry but you can’t go home! You have to see a buffalo, THEN a bus can drive you home through the snow.”

Well, it’s now four decades later, and I’m a great ‘Auntie’ to Vance and Charlie. What a joy to have my retirement hours often filled with time making priceless memories with my two adorable blonde-haired, blue-eyed great-nephews! 😊😊 I’m thankful and blessed - they, just like their mom, are a beam of sunshine that lights up my heart.

SRPN President's Report

Happily, as of this publication, we've made it successfully to the Summer of 2025!

This year's Memorial Day Tribute was touching and meaningful for all that were fortunate to attend the ceremony. The Flag Ceremony was followed by a celebration event in our social hall. I'm sure those who attended the event would agree that the food was both outstanding and plentiful!

Our community Mixed Bowling League banquet was held in May at the Clarion Hotel, and a good time was had by all. Congratulations to the bowlers for a fun season and we all look forward to the start of our 2025-26 season that begins in September.

I wish to thank our 30+ pool monitors for taking the time to attend a friendly and informative meeting regarding procedures for the pool and for unselfishly volunteering to monitor this season. Giving your time to ensure the pool can be open is so appreciated!

I also wish to thank the Women's Club for arranging the May Shore Club trip, which included a great luncheon and show. The hilarious comedian provided lots of laughs and the very entertaining tribute band played songs by Olivia Newton-John, Neil Diamond, and Patsy Cline. What a fun afternoon!

Now, that the seasons are changing again, and we can enjoy the usual warm-weather amenities, I'd like to remind you that the Pool is open, Bocce Games are in full swing, the Pickleball Courts are available, $1,100 Sunday Bingo Games are scheduled, and there's lots of other events to look forward to this summer. Check out flyers in this newsletter of the many events coming up hosted by the HOA, the Travel Club, Woman's Club, and Men's Club.

Lastly, "Thank you, Folks" for allowing each other to partake of the opportunity to live the way we do in our community, and to take advantage of this chance to live our senior years in the most enjoyable way possible. I can't end without my sincerest gratitude to the amazing people that join me on the Board of Trustees, who give daily of their time, energy, and knowledge to make Silver Ridge Park North what it is today. Thank you so much!!!

Have a great summer, everyone!

~ Gary Klaw, President

For some it's something good to eat
Spicy, savory, salty or sweet

For others who are on the go
A short road trip or picture show

Computer games are still the rage
Enjoy one that's right for your age

No two folks think just alike
Some ride a bike, some take a hike

And there are those who like to nap
A rested mind makes life a snap

It doesn't matter what you do
As long as it is just for you

So, take a breath and have some fun
You'll feel much better when you're done.

Still Paying It Forward SCAMS - Defensive Measures

- When using websites be sure to check the URL address for the CLOSED padlock located before the URL address. If it is not there, or if it is an “open” padlock, do not use the site.
- If an email contains misspellings or unusual characters, do not COPY & PASTE the address. You should always type in new website and email addresses and look for the closed padlock.
- Avoid random surveys, especially if they offer a free item for participating. These are known to contain computer viruses. If you submit surveys that are offered on sales receipts, just be aware that they may want more information than you should be providing.
- While not considered to be a scam, commercials or text that offer free samples usually require you to provide your credit card information to pay for SHIPPING. In reality, in real fine print, you are agreeing to buy subsequent products on a recurring basis that will be charged to that card. If you want the product, go to the manufacturer's website or Amazon to make your purchase.
- Credit card skimming is a tactic used to steal your card information while using an ATM or gasoline pumps. The best way to spot a skimming device is to place your finger on the card reader. If it has even the slightest movement, do not use it. Tapping your card for payment is the best way to avoid skimmers. If your card doesn't have that feature, call the issuer. Nearly 95% of the credit cards issued have that capability.

Lastly, always remember these three things:

- NOTHING is really free.
- NEVER loan/give your credit card to someone else to use.
- DO NOT leave ATM receipts at the ATM site.

OPENING DAY OF THE SRPN POOL SEASON

The weather was definitely on our side for Opening Day of the SRPN Pool Season and, as you can see in this picture, homeowner 'Magic' Mike D'Addario was the first one in the pool! It was a bit too cold for most of us, but Mike REALLY enjoyed it!

This Pool Season we look forward to the weekly 'Wiener Wednesdays' starting in July and continuing through August. There's plenty of sitting area around the pool, thanks to the Men's Club donation of several new lounge chairs. Don't forget there's Monday-Wednesday-Friday Morning Water Exercise Classes too. And there's plenty of shaded areas around the pool where you can simply enjoy the cool breezes and the company of your friends and neighbors on a beautiful day.

Please remember to wear your pool badge and follow the SRPN and NJ Health Department Rules so we can all have a fun, and safe, 2025 Pool Season.

See you at the pool!

2025 SRPN TRUSTEE CANDIDATE NOMINATIONS

In early September, the Election Committee will be accepting Candidate Nomination forms for the three (3) open trustee positions on the SRPN Board of Trustees. If you're newly retired and looking to feel productive and make a positive difference in your community, I highly recommend running for the position of Trustee. I'm hopeful that some new homeowners will 'throw their hat into the ring' this year – the community welcomes new perspectives and fresh ideas on the Board. From my own personal experience, I found my two Terms (for a total of four consecutive years) on the Board of Trustees extremely satisfying and fulfilling.

Basic Guidelines, Election Timeframe and Candidate Requirements will be found in the next North Newsletter issue (September) and also posted on the SRPN Trustee Bulletin Board in the Clubhouse Lobby. Candidates will be introduced at the Homeowners Meeting on Wednesday, November 5th, prior to our SRPN Trustee Election Day.

Please consider nominating yourself as a Candidate for the board and if you have questions, don't hesitate in contacting a member of the Election Committee; contact phone number can be found on page 2 of this newsletter - the Committee Contact Directory.

Just a 'History' Note

INDEPENDENCE DAY – OUR DECLARATION OF FREEDOM

The 4th of July. Just saying that date conjures up a day at the beach, fireworks, and family barbeques. It's hard to believe that it was only a mere 249 years ago when the United States of America officially became its own nation. These are the historic events that led to our freedom.

Before America was its own country, European countries, especially Great Britain, continued to settle in the American Colonies throughout the 17th and 18th centuries. By 1775, there were an estimated 2.5 million settlers.

Tensions started brewing when Great Britain passed legislation that gave it more control within the Colonies to taxing the Colonists. The passage of British Legislation like the 1765 Stamp Act, the 1767 Townshend Acts, and the Tea Act of 1773 forced Colonists to pay more money to Great Britain ... even though the Colonists didn't have a say in these tariff policies. This became known as Taxation without Representation, a heated pillar in the American Revolution.

Events like the Boston Tea Party and the Boston Massacre escalated more tension between British and American colonists. Those tensions exploded in April 1775, when the Battles of Lexington and Concord broke out in Massachusetts as British Forces attempted to confiscate weapons from the Colonists, and thus, the American Revolutionary War began.

Fast-forward to a June 1776 Continental Congress meeting in Philadelphia. Here, Virginia statesman Richard Henry Lee proposed a motion for the Colonies to declare independence from Britain. A committee was formed to draft an official independence document, which became known as the Declaration of Independence.

On July 2, 1776, Lee's motion for independence was approved. Two days later, on July 4, 1776, the Declaration of Independence was officially adopted and America became a free nation.

"... We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any form of government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their safety and happiness. ..."

The Declaration of Independence
